THE PRESIDENT

Warmth of Greeting Has Not of the republic.

SPEECH ON CAPITOL GROUNDS

MAGNIFICENT BOUGUET FRE
SENTED BY LITTLE GIRL.

Denver, Colo., May 4.—This is president's day in Colorado, and at every stopping place on President Roosevelt's timerary it has been observed with unbounded enthusiasm. The nation's chief executive was the guest of the city of Denver for two and one-half bours and was greeted with a warmth for the state, was massed along the streets and avenues of the line of nity of getting a good look at the distinguished guest during his drive over a route six miles in length, which was the principal feature of the programme for the day. The mayor had proclaimed a holiday, schools were closed, business was suspended and beautiful decorations were displayed on the capitol and many business buildings and residences in the streets traversed. The president made but one speech in this city, and that was delivered in the open air on the capitol grounds, where no less than 25,000 people were assembled. The sun shone brightly during the president's visit and no incident or accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion for Mr. Roosevelt.

Met at State Line.

The presidential train crossed the state line from Kansas early this morning, and at Hugo Governor James H. Peabody joined the president and welcomed him to the Centennial state. The governor remained with the president during the entire day and will accompany him as far as the southern state line tonight.

A military escort was in waiting at the Union depot to receive President Roosevelt on his arrival at 10:30 a. m. Mayor Robert R. Wright, jr., and the members of the reception committee appointed by him greeted the presidential party when they alighted from the train. The mayor presented the president and with a smilling addeu and a hearty, "Good luck to you."

Pueblo Colo., May 4.—Siren whistles of the steel works and smelters this eventing sounded a deafening good-by to President Roosevelt as his train sped away to the south and west, after a remarkable wheloome to him of 100,000 people of the Arkansas avalley. His special train arrived at the Mineral Palace park on the combined of time. A military escort accompany him as far as the southern state in the ability of the people of the state line from the train and the official with a problems that arise, not by genius or brilliant gifts, but by the exercise of the president addressed several thousand pupils of the public schools.

the city and a magnificent gold badge bearing the state crest and an appropriate inscription. Similar badges wrought in silver were presented to the other members of the party.

As the president, with his escort, passed through the sally port a troop of city cavalry, drawn up in line, presented arms and Satriano's band played "The President's March." When the procession of carriages started up Sevented arms and satriano's started up Sevented up Seven rocession of carriages started up Sev-nteenth street the troops again sa-uted, the band playing "Hail Colum-

General Irving Hale was grand marshal of the parade. In the first carriage with the president were his secretary, Governor Peabody and Mayor Wright. Among the escort in twenty carriages following were United States Senators Henry M. Teller and Thomas M. Patterson, Congressman John F. Shafroth and B. M. Hogg, ex-Governor Charles S. Thomas and David H. Motfat, The United States army was represented by General Baldwin and the Colorado. The military escort consisted of a troop of the Fourteenth United States cavairy from Fort Logan, troops B and C. First squadron cavalry, N. G. C., and the mounted signal corps, N. G. C., with the George W. Cook dum corps. Two mounted policemen rode on each side of the president's party and escort:

At the capitol the following organizations were drawn up to receive the president's party and escort:

Spoke Fifteen Minutes.

While the president was passing through the lines all armed bodies sawith trumpets alone, followed by "Columbia." President Roosevelt was escorted to the main corridor of the capitol, which was beautifully decorated, and after spending a few minutes in the executive chamber, passed under an arch of silk national colors, asparagus ferns and carnations to a stand erected on the west front of the capitol, while the band played "Hall to the Chief" and "The Star Spangled Banner." A vast multitude, covering the capitol grounds and streets, sent up cheer after cheer as the president came in view. President Roosevelt was introduced by Governor Peabody and he spoke for fitteen minutes, his remarks being frequently interrupted by applause.

To the tune of "Dixie" the president's party withdrew from the speaker's stand, and re-entering the carriages through the carriages stand, and re-entering the carriages stand, and re-entering the carriages through the route lay and may die.

After entering the park the carriages passed between long rows of school children who waved flags and loudly voiced the enthusiasm evoked by the privilege of seeing the first citizen.

HIS BUSINESS SECRET

Tangle in the Affairs of a New York Broker, Murdered in Chicago.

New York, May 4.—Certain that his father, Edward M. Simonds, the New York broker, was mysteriously murdered in Chicago, his son, Alan L. Simonds, has started an investigation to get at the details of the dead man's business affairs, to recover his fortune and to obtain through his business relations a clue that may lead to vengeance on his father's slayer. That Simonds met his death while fulfilling a secret mission of importance to financiers in New York and Chicago is now the bellef of his friends. They say he had almost completed a big deal when he was killed.

Beyond that point, however, no progress has been made toward solving the mystery. For some reason Simonds for years kept from his family all information that might now furnish clues. Where his offices were, who his business associates were and other details are unknown.

sure the Ottoman bank and other buildings were attacked with bombs, as already has been described. Soldiers were hurried up to the scenes of disorder. They fired wild volleys, but many of the attackers were killed or wounded by the explosion of their own bombs.

Executed on the Spot.

Attempts at throwing bombs are now being dealt with summarily. At noon last Sunday a man disguised as a Turkish priest tried to throw a bomin into the telegraph office at Salonica. He was apprehended and executed on the spot.

The authorities continue to make arrests, and many Bulgarians disguised as Turkish officers are being seized. Among those arrested are professors in the Bulgarian school, who are alleged to have been the head of the revolutionary movement.

Edib Pasha, who arrived at Salonica last Saturday to carry out the decree of martial law, has issued a proclamation stating that the sultan has ordered him to deal severely with all persons guilty of outrages.

Dynamite Seized.

At Uskub, European Turkey, the police have seized stores of dynamite in the house of the Bulgarian residents. The news that Germany has sent a warship to Salonica has led the Austrian newspapers to discuss the probability of European intervention. In both Berlin and Vienna, however, semiofficial statements have been issued explaining that the object of sending the ships of war is solely for the protection of foreign subjects and that the vessels will be withdrawn as soon as the danger is over.
